Announcements

Thank you for reading our Nonprofit Newsletter! We've had a great response so far, and will continue to keep you updated on what we are doing, what we can do for you, as well as the topics you are interested in. Please continue to share your thoughts with us by replying to this email. Again, please do not unsubscribe from these emails, as there will be important information communicated to you through this newsletter. We strive to deliver information you are interested in, so let us know what that is if you don't see it here!

Partnerships

In July we installed software onto our printers that will measure the amount of paper we print. Bauerle and Company, P.C. has partnered with PrintReleaf Exchange in donating funds to an effort to improve our local and global environments as well as the local and global economies for the better. Recent Sponsorships

On August 17, 2014, Bauerle's employees participated in the annual Paint-a-Thon, organized by Brothers Redevelopment. Every year, a team of volunteers is assigned to paint the home of an elderly homeowner in need. This will be our third year participating, and we look forward to it every year!
